FAMILY LIFE

Sharing is the secret sauce to make this day special

DEAR READERS: Today is Thanksgiving Day, so here's my traditional Thanksgiving column. Take a few minutes to think about what you have to be thankful for.

How's your health? Not so good? Well, thank God you've lived this long. A lot of people haven't. You're hurting? Thousands—maybe millions—are hurting more. (Have you ever visited a veterans hospital? Or a rehabilitation clinic for crippled children?)

DEAR ABBY

concern—Concern for fair play under the law. Your country may not be a peach of weeds.

Freedom rings! Look and listen. You can still worship at the church of your choice, cast a secret ballot, and even criticize your government without fearing a knock on the head or a knock on the door at midnight. And if you want to live under a different system, you are free to go. There are no walls or fences—nothing to keep you here.

As a final thought, I'll repeat my Thanksgiving prayer, perhaps you will want to use it at your table today.

O, heavenly Father,
We thank thee for food and remember the hungry.
We thank thee for friends and remember the friendless.
We thank thee for freedom and remember the enslaved.
May these remembrances stir us to service.
That thy gifts to us may be used for others. Amen.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving, and may God bless you and yours.

LOVE, ABBY
An afterthought: Want an instant high? The surest cure for the post-holiday blues is to do something nice for someone. Why not call someone who lives alone and invite him (or her) over for dinner?
Better yet, call and say, "I'm coming to get you, and I'll see that you get home." (Many older people don't drive, and those who do don't like to go out alone after dark.)

Try it. And let me know the results.

P.S. Special greetings to those of you in the military who wrote from remote corners of the world to tell me that you are using my Thanksgiving prayer on this Thanksgiving Day.

ANNIVERSARY

THE HUGHES

WENDELL - Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hughes of Wendell will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Friday with a family dinner, hosted by their children.

Hughes and Bertha Lewton were both raised in Buhl and attended school there. They were married Nov. 29, 1946, in Elko, Nev.

He served in the Navy during World War II. He attended college in Boise and worked as a mechanic in Burley and Twin Falls. He owned his own service station in Twin Falls. He went to work for Ambrose Distributing in Wendell in 1963, and retired from there in 1995. He still works part-time and enjoys tinkering with vehicles.

She kept busy raising three children until 1965, when she went to work as a nurse's aid in Wendell. She worked at Harra's Nursing Home in Buhl, and the Wendell Manor. She retired in 1994, after 29 years. She enjoys gardening, reading and doing crafts.

The couple has three children, Jim and Bob Hughes, both of Wendell, and Chris (James) Jackson of Blackfoot; and two grandsons, Jim (Nail) Jackson of Blackfoot and Alan Jackson of Jerome.

Santa's getting bigger and bigger, his suit-maker says

Knight-Ridder News Service

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. - Maybe there's been too much milk and cookies. But there's no denying the fact - Santa's getting fatter.

His tailor says so. Without alterations, the jolly old elf can't get his heavy fall of jelly into his traditional Christmas suit, even minus the pillows, according to Jenny Zink.

For 27 years, Zink has been turning out Santa suits at the Santa school operated by Western Staff Services, a Walnut Creek, Calif., temporary employment company that provides more than 3,000 St. Nick's annually in the U.S., the United Kingdom, Australia and New Zealand.

The original 1948 pattern, which Western keeps in a safe, has expanded, inch by inch. Beginning in the 1970s, Zink said, seamstresses started letting out the waist and lengthening the jacket.

Santa steadily put on weight and even got taller in the '80s. "And here in the '90s we've had one more thing," said Zink. "The suits have always been big. But it's a question of how big. Extra large isn't always big enough and now we're getting cast for extra extra large."

One of Western's most popular Bay Area Santas sheepishly admitted he seems to need a bigger red suit every Christmas.

Buster Killion, who'll park his sleigh at the Sun Valley Mall in Concord, Calif., for the holidays, has gained 45 pounds in the six years he has been Santa.

"When I started I was 260 pounds and needed a pillow," the 51-year-old Wells Fargo Bank computer engineer and grandfather said.

"Now I weigh 305 pounds, my belt size is 50 and when Western calls and tells me not to forget my pillow, I say 'What pillow?'"

Killion, who bleaches his dark beard each year in December, has ample reason for become rounder.

Kids often bring him cookies before listing their "I wants" and, there are grownups like the elderly lady in Concord last year who would sit in the mall and watch him every day.

"Whenever there was a lull in the line of children, she'd come up quietly, push a little wrapped chocolate candy into my hand and then go back to her bench and watch me some more," Killion said.
